

State. Every horse or mule drover shall be considered a non-resident, unless the sheriff has satisfactory evidence that he is a resident of the State; and the sheriff shall have power and authority to examine, on oath, at any time, every horse or mule drover, or person who receives horses or mules to sell for another, as to whether he has made any sale or exchange or not, and as to whether he is a non-resident, or agent of a non-resident; and on his failure to answer, he shall be subject to the same penalty as for failure or neglect to pay such tax.

Studs and Jacks.

(23) Every stud-horse or jackass let to mares for a price, belonging to a non-resident of the State, ten dollars, unless the highest price demanded for the season, for one mare, shall exceed that sum, in which case the amount thus demanded shall be paid for the license. The payment to one sheriff, and the license under his hand, shall protect the subject in this paragraph taxed, in any county of this State. Every such stud-horse or jackass shall be considered as belonging to a non-resident, unless the sheriff is furnished with satisfactory evidence that the owner is a resident of the State.

Pedlers, etc.

(24) Every person that peddles goods, wares or merchandize, either by land or water, not the growth or manufacture of this State, or any drugs, nostrums or medicine, whether such person travel on foot, or with a conveyance, or otherwise, shall first have proved to the county court that he is a citizen of the United States, and is of good moral character, and shall have obtained from the court, who may, in its discretion, make or refuse, an order to the sheriff to grant him peddler's license, to expire on the first of July next ensuing. And the sheriff on production of a copy of such order, certified by the clerk of said court, shall grant such license for his county, on receipt of forty dollars tax: Provided, 1. That not more than one person shall peddle under one license. 2. That any person who temporarily carries on a business as merchant in any public place, and then re-
